

Dear buyers!

You should remember that correct organization of hygienic and sanitary conditions is a guarantee of a sound health of your family and your pets.

Don't worry, if your pets eat our product from time to time. As they have a fine natural scent, they are able to regulate a required quantity of natural components for the correct work of their organism. Their excellent sense of smell will help them to distinguish easily magnesium, calcium, potassium, ferric oxide, phosphorus and sulphur in our product. Your pets look for these components in their natural environment.

Your pet will be happy with our product!